please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 i had always laughed at the idea of the supernatural but as i walked through my garden i felt a cold damp presence brush past me i screamed and ran into the house the next morning i woke up to the sound of the muslim call to prayer 2 the muezzin s cry floated through the morning mist across cobblestone lanes in wah pakistan i remembered the eerie experience in the garden the night before and quickly turned to morning routines that were comforting just because they were so ordinary 3 i had been married to general khalid sheikh the pakistan minister of interior for six years i had been a hostess for diplomats and industrialists from all over the world but when khalid left me i fled the sophisticated life to seek refuge in the quiet peace of my family s ancestral property near the foothills of the himalayan mountains 4 i was secluded in my garden restoring it when i received a visit from my grandson mahmud i had agreed to adopt him and he was living with me now i was very close with my three grandchildren all over the world women and girls face troubles such as starvation displacement illiteracy sexual exploitation and abuse kay marshall strom and michele rickett traveled to interview girls and to partner with ministries helping females in the most difficult places in the world these pages hold those girls stories of deep pain and suffering inspiring courage and incredible hope this volume offers much needed theological reflection on the phenomenon of conversion and transformation gordon smith provides a robust evaluation that covers the broad range of thinking about conversion across christian traditions and addresses global contexts smith contends that both in the church and in discussions about contemporary mission the language of conversion inherited from revivalism is inadequate in helping to navigate the questions that shape how we do church how we approach faith formation how evangelism is integrated into congregational life and how we witness to the faith in non christian environments we must rethink the nature of the church in light of how people actually come to faith in christ after drawing on ancient and pre revivalist wisdom on conversion smith delineates the contours of conversion and christian initiation for today s church he concludes by discussing the art of spiritual autobiography and what it means to be a congregation jesus invites people to a life pulsing with love purpose and the promise of unending joy he calls this narrow road journey discipleship and says follow me the first generations to believe in jesus knew that following him and his ways was an essential part of their faith they self identified as disciples today many people are disconnected from this journey or unsure of where to start disciple gate is a thoughtful practical and down to earth guide to discipleship that can help change that through scripture story and personal testimony readers explore five key moments in this adventure with jesus stepping through seasons of beauty and struggle they learn to develop a resilient and reproductive faith they move into life with jesus and friendship with god enter through the narrow gate for wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction and many enter through it but small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life and only a few find it jesus matt 7 13 14
